u Syiem, kum ka United Kingdom ha ri Bilat : (2) Ka Federal Union, lane ka jingiasyrdoh lang ki hima tang na ka bynta ka jingiabha lang, hynrei ka bor ha ki hima ka sah kumjuh. Bun ki Syiem ki ia sngew wit ban ia pynlong ka jingiasyrdoh lang namar ki sngew ba da kaba leh kumta kin duh ia la ka long Syiem bad yn long noh tang uwei u Syiem. Kane ka long ka jingsngewthuh bakla. Ka jingiapyrkhat ban ialang kam long ban pynlong ka Unitary Government hynrei ban iasyrdoh lang kum ka Federal Union.

U Dicey u ong ba don artylli kiei kiei kiba dei ban don na ka bynta ban pynlong ka Federal Union lane Federation. (1) Ka dei ban don ka met jong ki briew (body of communities) kaba la pyniasoh lang da ka jingialang ha kajuh ka jaka, kajuh ka hisrtori, kajuh ka jaid ka kynja (race) bad kum kita, kaba lah ban pyni ha khmat jong kita ki nongshong shnong ia ka jinglong jaid bynriew ba iadei kajuh (common nationality), (2) dei ban don ka jingkwah ban iasyrdoh lang khlem da pynlong kawei (union without unity), ban pyniawan ia ki jingmut ba iapher jong ka jingiasoh bad ka jingiakhlad, bad ban pyniadei ruh ia ka jingmyntoi jong ka jingiasoh hima lang bad ka jingbymmymntoi jong ka jingpyniapait ia ka bor jingsynshar bad ka rukom jingthaw ain kaba bun rukom.

Nga iohi ba don hangne bun ki rangbah bad ki student na ki skul bah, te ngan ym da donkam ban da batai ia kine, nga shu pule beit ia ki ktien na ka kitab: "Introduction to Political Science" kumne : "Among the more conspicuous merits of the federal system may be noted, first of all, that it affords a means of uniting into a powerful state commonwealths more or less diverse in character ... without extinguishing wholly their separate existences... Federation has been the means of bringing together many petty states in the past which ... for this, would have remained forever apart. It has thus proved a powerful unifying force where other forms of government have repelled. Again, it excels all other forms of government in the effectiveness with which it combines the advantages of national unity and power with those of local autonomy. It secures at the same time all the advantages of uniformity in the regulation of affairs of general concern with those of diversity in the regulation of local affairs. Instead of concentrating the power of the state in a single organ or set of organs, as is the case in the unitary state, federalism distributes it between a common central government and a number of local government, and thus prevents the rise of a single despotism absorbing all political power and menacing the liberties of the people".

Ngi iohi te ba da kaba ia pynlong ka Federation ym don ka jingthmu ban pynduh noh ia ka jinglong Syiem bad ia ka bor ha la ki hima hima kumba don kiba tharai kumne. Ka jingdon jong ka Federation kan pynlah ia ngi ban thaw ki ain bad ban leh shibun ki kam pynbha ia ka Ri kiba ki Syiem hi marwei marwei kim lah. Ynda ngi la ia kut jingmut lang ban iasoh lang kum ka Federation ngi lah ban sa ia thaw ka constitution da kaba ia don lang ki nongmih khmat na ki hima baroh. Ha kaba pynkut noh nga sngew ba nga dei ban ong ba ka jingmih jong ka Khasi National Dorbar ka pynpaw ba ngi la jam shi kyrdan sha ka jingnang jingsian, hynrei ka jingpynlong ia ka Federation kan long ka jingnang iaid shaphrang kaba ilan (great advance) sha ka pyrthei jong ka jingnang jingsian.

"The meeting of the Khasis held on 25th May 1943 under the auspices of Khasi National Dorbar, learnt with deep concern of the rumour that Mr. A.R.H. Macdonald I.C.S., Deputy Commissioner and Political Agent Khasi States, Khasi & Jaintia Hills is under order of transfer.

The Khasi people have found in Mr. Macdonald an able and competent administrator both as D.C. and P.O. Khasi & Jaintia Hills. His handling of the food situation and other measures arising out of the war conditions has created confidence and given satisfaction. His transfer from this District at this time would be most unfortunate. The Meeting therefore, urge upon His Excellency to retain Mr. Macdonald as D.C. and P.O. of his District, at least, for the duration of the war".

U V.P. Menon, Secretary jong ka Sorkar India, Ministry of States ha ka kot jong u, ‘The Story of the Integration of the Indian States’, u ong –

“THE KHASI HILL STATES , a tribal area in Assam, were twenty-five in number. The chiefs of these States, known as Siems, were generally elected by the people: a number of them were Christians. Before the transfer of power, the Crown Representative’s relations with these Staes were conducted through the Governor of Assam. These States did not accede to India on 15th August 1947. the old practice continued, by which the Government of Assam administered these areas on behalf of the Government of India under the Indian (Foreign Jurisdiction Order in Council). Later in the year these States, which had meanwhile formed a federation of their own, executed an Agreement continuing in force, with certain exceptions, existing administrative arrangements with the Dominion of India and the Province of Assam. Thereafter, the rulers individually and collectively acceded to the Indian Union. The Instrument of Accession, subject to the provision of the Agreement, empowered the Dominion Legislature to make laws for the Khasi Hill State in respect of any matter.

The future of these States under the new Constitution was the subject of prolonged discussion between the States Ministry and the the Siems and their advisers, the Reverend Nichols-Roy being their chief spokesman. The people in the States wished to preserve their tradition and customs as far as possible. They were anxious to maintain their autonomy, and were opposed to the idea of outright merger with Assam. The Government of India ultimately decided that the district councils in the tribal areas should be given a large measure of autonomy. Detailed and specific provisions for the governance of the Khasi Hill States and other tribal areas of Assam were included in the Sixth Schedule to the Indian Constitution".*

(La thoh bad la lum da u Assistant Secretary, Mr. P. Wahlang)

Ha ka jingthoh kaba I la pynkhreh na ka bynta ban pule ha ka National Forum 1971 I Babu Wilson Reade I la thoh kumne :- "Ha u bnai October, 19 tarik 1952, u Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru u la wan sha Shillong nyngkong eh kum u Prime Minister ka Ri India, bad ka long ka por ba baroh ki leit ai Memorandum. Ka Khasi National Dorbar ruh ka la khreh la ka Memorandum".

Ha ka Proceedings jong ka Working Committee kaba long ha ka 16.10.52., la thoh ba ka Committee ka la pyrkhat shaphang ka draft Memorandum sha u Shri Nehru ba la wanrah da ka Sub-Committee bad ka la rai kut shaphang jong kane. Ka Memorandum kan long kumne harum :-

We, on behalf of the Khasi National Dorbar and the Khasi Public as a whole, extend to you a most cordial welcome on this great occasion of your first visit as Prime Minister to our beloved land, United Khasi Jaintia Hills. We take it as an opportunity of presenting before you our aspirations, and our difficulties and problems which we are facing now, and request you to give your kind consideration and take necessary action.

We appreciate very much your approach to the tribal problems and your speeches at the Tribal Conference held at New Delhi on the 7th June 1952, in which you said that "we were an extremely disciplined people, often much more democratic than many others in India. Without the Constitution and the rest, they functioned democratically". You also very rightly warned those people living around us not "to impose yourself; to interfere and come in their way, to try to change their methods of living, and take away their land, to push some of your businessmen there who will exploit them". Such a spirit is most welcome to us and if acted upon will dispel most of our fears and suspicions".

The Khasis are entirely different from the plains people as they have different traditions, culture and civilization of their own. From time immemorial they had their indigenous democratic rulers called Syiems, Lyngdohs, Wahadadars and Sordar. These rulers are not territorial sovereigns; they have no right whatsoever to the soil. Land in the Khasi Hills belongs to the children of the soil. The Khasis enjoyed their rights and privileges, and their democratic institutions were not interfered with.

But we find that the Sixth Schedule does not provide adequate safeguards for all those rights, privileges and democratic institutions. The Constitution Making Durbar of the Khasi States as far back as 1940 had foreseen this and demanded a separate schedule for the whole District of Khasi Jaintia Hills.

The purpose of the embodiment of the Sixth Schedule in the Constitution is that the Tribal people should decide for themselves and not to have things decided for them. But the introduction of arbitrary nominations to the District Council is foreign to the democratic traditions of the Khasis and at the same time defeats that very purpose.

As a protest against this innovation which is a challenge to the feelings of the Khasis, after unsuccessful attempts to obtain redress from the Government of Assam, a procession headed by students was taken out on the 27th June 1952, the day of inauguration of the District Council. The procession was peaceful one and free of all intentions of causing breach of public peace. The Government of Assam met the procession by a well-prepared force of armed police who engaged the demonstrators with tear-gas and lathi charge, a fact which gave rise to a just resentment of the Khasis. Fourty three of the demonstrators were arrested while public resentment was cooled down by interference of Khasi leaders who love and work for peace. Strangely enough, a few minutes after the above incident the procession was allowed to reform itself and to proceed, this time with a much large crowd through the main roads of Shillong which were previously prohibited areas. Thus the 'right of expression' of the Khasis was cut and their feelings of insecurity aggravated.

In addition to the imposition of nomination to the District Council the existence of the following provisions, among others, have served to increase the sense of insecurity and fears of the Khasis :-

1. That assent to the laws passed by the District Council will be given by the Governor not acting in his discretion.
2. The exclusion of Shillong for all practical purposes from the jurisdiction of the District Council.
3. That licences and leases for the purpose of prospecting for, and the extraction of minerals from our District are to be granted by the Assam Government.

4. That large portion of the income derived from the District has to be shared with the State Government.

The partition of India has extensively hard hit the Southern portion of Khasi Hills. People in that area were and used to be prosperous and rich. The partition brought cessation of trade with Sylhet, East Bengal and the once valuable and wealth producing commodities became useless and unusable with the consequence that these people were reduced to dire poverty. The attempt to air-lift the produce last year could only transport a microscopic portion of it. The area does not produce life-maintaining commodities and the people are suffering from want and starvation. Driven by hunger a number of our kith and kin (more than 1000) was reported to have separated from us and migrated to Pakistan. This is heart-paining to us as a people and likely a danger to the State. The proposed attempt of the Assam Government to supply rice to those people at control rate will be of no value because they have no more purchasing power. Their condition is no better than those of refugees.

We opposed the proposal of making Assamese the State language of Assam. As Hill Tribes we are having to learn besides our own vernacular, English and Hindi which is the lingua franca of India; addition of Assamese over and above these will be very heavy to our boys and girls in schools and colleges.

The Hills of Assam are contiguous and the people inhabiting them are more or less of the same stock, having affinity of culture, ways of life, character and in many other respects. They have common understanding, common fear of encroachment and exploitation by major communities. The unification of these hills under one administration and under the Indian Union will, it is hoped, meet the aspirations of all the Tribal people.

We again welcome you with our National invocation of blessing.

Khublei
